PRESS RELEASE

Appointment

Guillaume Lefebvre is appointed Head of French Regions Division (DRF) and Head of strategy towards medium-sized corporate and institutional clients in France and abroad. He reports to Thierry Simon, Head of Client Coverage and International Network, and joins the Extended Executive Committee.

This appointment confirms Crédit Agricole group's ambition with medium-sized corporate and institutional clients. Thanks to the Regional Banks and LCL's network, and to the expertise of its corporate and investment bank, Crédit Agricole supports medium-sized corporates, which are major players of the French economy, in their development in France and abroad.

Guillaume Lefebvre joined the Crédit Agricole group in 1991, working for LCA Holding in New York, Crédit Agricole's leasing subsidiary in the United States. He then joined Crédit Agricole S.A.'s General Audit department, after which he became Deputy General Manager of Ucabail from 2002 to 2004. After this position he joined Crédit Agricole Val de France as Marketing, Human Resources and Finance Director until 2007, and then became Deputy General Manager of Crédit Agricole Normandie Seine.

Guillaume Lefebvre is 50 years old. He is graduated from ISG, holds an MBA from Hartford University, a DESS from IAE Paris Sorbonne and an Ms from HEC and Oxford.
