

Paris, June 1st 2015

PRESS RELEASE

Appointment

Danielle Baron is appointed Global Head of Utilities and Power at Crédit Agricole CIB. She reports to Jean-François Grandchamp des Raux, Global Head of Energy & Infrastructure Group. She will take up her new position this summer in Paris, on the 1st of September at the latest.

Danielle joined Credit Agricole CIB London in 2009 as a Director in the Power sector, where she led various advisory and arranging mandates in Europe and the Middle East. She was subsequently promoted as the Head of Energy & Infrastructure for Latin America in New York in 2012.

Danielle began her career at U.S. Ex-Im Bank in Washington D.C. in 1994 as a Project Analyst. She later joined ANZ Investment Bank, where she held several positions in Structured Finance in Hanoi, Melbourne and London, covering Power & Utilities and Infrastructure activities. Danielle joined HSBC in 2005, focusing on Infrastructure Structured Finance in continental Europe and Latin America.

Danielle holds a Bachelor of Science from Tufts University.

Press Contact

Maryse Dournes
+ 33 1 41 89 89 38
maryse.dournes@ca-cib.com

About Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank (Crédit Agricole CIB)

Crédit Agricole CIB is the Corporate and Investment Banking arm of the Crédit Agricole Group, the world's No. 8 largest bank by total assets (The Banker, July 2014).

The Bank offers its clients a comprehensive range of products and services structured around five major divisions:

- Client Coverage & International Network
- Global Investment Banking
- Structured Finance
- Global Markets
- Debt Optimization & Distribution

The Bank provides support to clients in large international markets through its network with a presence in major countries in Europe, America, Asia Pacific and the Middle East.

For more information, please visit its website at www.ca-cib.com.