Crédit Agricole CIB expands Asset Acquisitions and Disposals advisory business

LONDON, 21 September, 2016. Paul Leece has been appointed Head of Asset Acquisitions and Disposals, based in London. The Asset Acquisitions and Disposals team will work closely with Crédit Agricole CIB's market-leading Infrastructure and Power franchises and the Global Investment Banking business. The Asset Acquisitions and Disposals team will focus on transactions across a range of asset classes within the Infrastructure and Power sectors.

Paul reports to Brian Lerner, Head of Structured Finance Advisory, but will also work closely with Crédit Agricole CIB's Global Investment Banking team headed by Hélène Combe-Guillemet. Paul joins Crédit Agricole CIB from UBS.

"Paul's extensive experience of advising Infrastructure Funds, Direct Investors and Corporate Clients on the acquisition and divestment of infrastructure assets will be invaluable to developing our franchise and adding value to our clients." says Brian Lerner, Head of Structured Finance Advisory.

"Paul will make a major contribution to growing a business where we have already a strong track record of advising on a number of high profile transactions" said Hélène Combe-Guillemet Head of Global Investment Banking.
