Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank appoints Gene K. Kim as Head of International for the Global Markets Division

London, 8th September 2016 – Crédit Agricole CIB has appointed Gene K. Kim as Head of International for the Global Markets Division. He will also head Global Markets activities in the Americas. Based in New York, Gene reports globally to Isabelle Girolami, Head of Global Markets and locally to Marc-André Poirier, Head of the Americas Region. He will be a member of the Global Markets Division Executive Committee (GMD Comex) as well as a member of Crédit Agricole CIB Americas Management Committee.

This new role of Head of International for the Global Markets Division has been created to oversee the management of Global Markets business in the Americas, Asia and the Middle East.

Gene's career in the financial industry and understanding of multi-cultural management perspectives spans three decades in the United States and in Asia. His experience has included assignments both on the trading desk and in management.

Before joining us, Gene was Regional Head of Financial Markets business in Greater China and North Asia for Standard Chartered Bank, in charge of asset and liability management, capital markets business, sales and trading of: foreign exchange, fixed income, credit, and commodities products. He was a member of the Financial Markets Management Team and the Group Diversity and Inclusion Forum of Standard Chartered Bank.

While in Hong Kong, Gene K. Kim served as the Chairman of the board at the Asia Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (ASIFMA). He also was on the executive board at Treasury Markets Association (TMA) and on the board of OTC Clearing HK Limited.

"I am delighted Gene is joining the Global Markets team. His experience in the financial industry and understanding of multi-cultural leadership will enable us to further develop cross border business in the Americas, Asia and the Middle East. He will also be an inspirational leader for Global Markets in the Americas.", said Isabelle Girolami, Head of Global Markets at Crédit Agricole CIB.
