Crédit Agricole CIB appoints Cécile Bidet as Global Head of Debt Capital Markets Solutions and Advisory

06 September 2017 – Crédit Agricole CIB has appointed Cécile Bidet as Global Head of Debt Capital Markets Solutions and Advisory.

Cécile has 20 years of experience in Capital Markets and Financial Institutions. She started her career at Moody's in Financial Institutions in 1998 where she was responsible for a portfolio of banks in Western and Eastern Europe and a Lead Analyst for Consumer Finance Companies. In 2007, she joined Société Générale where she developed the Rating Advisory activity for Banks. From 2014, she was given the additional responsibility to coordinate the advisory initiative for banks in Capital Markets. In this role, she defined a strategy and led a cross-product team to advise Banks on regulatory, financing, capital and asset matters.

Based in London, Cécile reports to Sébastien Domanico, Global Head of Debt Capital Markets.

"With her wealth of experience in building a successful advisory model and knowledge of Financial Institutions, I am confident that Cécile will help us increase our proximity with our SSA, Corporates and Financial Institutions clients globally and develop further our Solutions offer in line with our advisory-driven Debt Capital Markets strategy" said Sébastien Domanico, Global Head of Debt Capital Markets at Crédit Agricole CIB.
