Crédit Agricole CIB opens a representative office in Jakarta, Indonesia

London – 16 April 2018 – Crédit Agricole CIB, Crédit Agricole Group’s corporate and investment bank, inaugurated on April 12 its representative office in Jakarta, Indonesia.

This representative office functions as part of the Asia-Pacific regional network of Crédit Agricole CIB, with headquarter based in Hong Kong, and benefits from all of the Bank’s expertise. It provides support to clients by addressing their needs in close cooperation with our business lines offshore.

For Michel Roy, Senior Regional Officer of Crédit Agricole CIB for Asia-Pacific: “With this inauguration, Crédit Agricole CIB is now present in 9 countries in the Asia-Pacific region. The opening of this office is an important new step in our efforts to support the regional growth, by providing our clients, both local and international, with our strong capabilities in financing solutions, capital markets, advisory and other Crédit Agricole CIB’s expertise.”*

Franck Passillier, Chief Representative of Crédit Agricole CIB for Indonesia, adds: “Our presence in Indonesia strengthens our relationships with Indonesian authorities and companies, as well as our foreign customers established in the country. We are now able to provide them a more dynamic and targeted offer for greater participation in the development of Indonesia, which is the largest economy of the A.S.E.A.N. (Association of South East Asian Nations).”

Crédit Agricole CIB provides a broad range of financial services and products to meet clients’ needs in various areas of interest for Indonesia such as Structured Finance (project finance in Energy and Infrastructure, Aviation, Shipping, Telecom and Acquisition Finance), International Trade and Export Finance, Commodity Finance, Corporate Banking, Fixed Income and Foreign Exchange, Bond Issuance and Advisory.

Australia, China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Japan, Singapore, South Korea and Taiwan.*
