Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank Further strengthens its Global Markets management team

Dominique Blanchard appointed Regional Head of the Global Markets Division for Asia-Pacific

London 24 April 2018 – Dominique Blanchard joins Crédit Agricole CIB as Regional Head of the Global Markets Division (GMD) for Asia-Pacific effective 23rd April 2018.

Based in Hong Kong, Dominique reports globally to Gene Kim, Head of International for the Global Markets Division and locally to Michel Roy, Senior Regional Officer for Asia-Pacific. He will be a member of Crédit Agricole CIB Asia-Pacific Management Committee.

“Dominique will play a key role in deepening and extending our client franchise in Asia-Pacific, leading our GMD teams to address the needs of our Financial Institutions and Corporates clients with the most efficient solutions” said Michel Roy, Senior Regional Officer for Asia-Pacific.

“We are delighted to welcome Dominique to Crédit Agricole CIB. With his extensive experience in capital markets he will help us further strengthen our franchise in Asia.” added Gene Kim, Head of International for the Global Markets Division.

Dominique brings with him more than 25 years’ experience in financial markets spent in Europe and Asia-Pacific across fixed income, equity derivatives and financial advisory. He joins Crédit Agricole CIB from ANZ where he was Global Head of Sales and Debt Capital Markets. Dominique also worked for Daiwa Sumitomo from 2008 to 2013, where he ran and restructured their global financial products activities, front to back. Prior to that, he spent over 15 years with the Crédit Agricole Group, his last position was Deputy Head of the Fixed Income division.
