Crédit Agricole CIB announces new appointments for its Global Markets Division

London, 13 November 2019 - Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank announces new appointments for its Global Markets Financing & Funding Solutions (FFS) Division. It combines the Securitisation and the Global Credit business lines, the latter comprised of all segments of the debt capital markets credit chain (Origination, Syndicate, Sales and Trading)

Arnaud d'Intignano is appointed Head of Financing and Funding Solutions

Arnaud has been Global Head of Securitisation since 2016. Prior to that, since 2012 he headed the Transversal Functions Group of Global Markets, encompassing the COO Office, CVA trading and Scarce Resources monitoring. Before that, Arnaud spent over 10 years in Crédit Agricole CIB's Finance Division in New York and Paris, heading its Financial Control functions. Arnaud joined the Bank from Deloitte, where he was a senior manager.

Arnaud reports to Pierre Gay, Head of the Global Markets Division.

Atul Sodhi is appointed Global Head of Debt Capital Markets

Atul has been the Global Head of Debt Capital Markets Corporates since March 2018 and prior to that, he was the Head of Debt Origination and Advisory Asia-Pacific, based in Hong Kong. He has been with Crédit Agricole CIB since 1997 and has strong expertise in client coverage and origination gained over 25 years of working experience.

Jean-Luc Lamarque is appointed Global Head of Syndicate, Credit Sales and Credit Trading

Jean-Luc brings with him 29 years of experience in financial markets where he acted first as a trader and Head of trading for swaps, options and bonds. Jean-Luc has been responsible for the Syndicate function since September 2005, growing it from an originally European focus to the global platform we see today, with Syndicate desks opened in New York, Hong Kong and Tokyo.

Jérôme Mazière is confirmed Global Head of Corporate Securitisation

Jérôme is the Global Head of Corporate Securitisation since 2017 and prior to that, he was the European Head of Corporate Securitisation since December 2009. Before December 2009, Jerome was Head of Structuring in Italy. He has been with Crédit Agricole CIB since 2003 and has a strong expertise in Working Capital financing solutions gained over 20 years of working experience.

Alexandre Vigier is confirmed Global Head of Financial Institution and Operating Asset Securitisation

Alexandre has been Global Head of Financial Institution and Operating Asset Securitisation since 2017. Prior to that, he was Head of EMEA Securitisation since 2014 and Head of Financial Institution Securitisation since 2009, successfully redeveloping the bank's platform into a leading European ABS House. Alexandre brings with him 23 years of experience in Securitisation and Structured Finance.

Atul, Jean-Luc, Jérôme and Alexandre report to Arnaud d'Intignano, Head of Financing and Funding Solutions.

“These new appointments will allow us to support our clients’ growing needs by ensuring a full alignment of our Origination, Structuring, Syndicate, Credit Trading and Sales teams for both secured and unsecured formats, private and public. ” said Pierre Gay, Head of the Global Markets Division.
