Crédit Agricole CIB appoints Antoine Sirgi as Senior Country Officer for Singapore

Crédit Agricole CIB has appointed Antoine Sirgi as Senior Country Officer for Singapore, effective July 1, 2023. He reports to Jean-François Deroche, Senior Regional Officer for Asia Pacific at Crédit Agricole CIB.

Based in Singapore, Antoine will oversee all business activities covering our clients in Singapore as well as in South East Asia. In addition to these responsibilities, Antoine will also have a Group coordination role for Crédit Agricole entities present in Singapore, namely Amundi and Indosuez Wealth Management. He has previously served various managerial roles in Asia Pacific within the Group, and was the Senior Country Officer for Crédit Agricole CIB Japan since 2016.

“Singapore is a gateway for our clients to explore the ever-expanding opportunities in the South-East Asian market. Over the years, we have widened our offerings for local and international clients in the Lion City and this region. We expect more exciting opportunities to emerge in the coming years thanks to the region’s thriving business dynamics,” said Jean-François Deroche, Senior Regional Officer for Asia Pacific at Crédit Agricole CIB. “We’re confident that Antoine’s all-rounded experience in capital markets and decade-long management roles in Asia Pacific will help elevate our local development to new heights,” he added.

Crédit Agricole CIB’s presence in the city-state dates back to 1905. Crédit Agricole CIB Singapore has now become the Bank’s Asia Pacific hub for International Trade and Transaction business, and the information technology platform for the region. Leveraging the Bank’s global expertise and international network, Crédit Agricole CIB Singapore has established itself as a trusted real assets financing partner, a pioneer in green and sustainable finance, as well as a major provider of hedging and investment solutions. With these strengths, the Bank will continue to support the development of local corporates, financial institutions and multinational corporations.

■ Biography

Antoine Sirgi started his career at Crédit Lyonnais in 1987 and held several positions in Corporate Finance and Equity Capital Markets. In 1995, he moved to London as Director, Equity Capital Markets in charge of Greece, Turkey, and the Middle East. Antoine was appointed Head of International Corporate Equity Derivatives in 2003, an activity he built and developed.

■ About Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank (“Crédit Agricole CIB”)

Crédit Agricole CIB is the corporate and investment banking arm of Crédit Agricole Group, the 10th largest banking group worldwide in terms of balance sheet size (“The Banker”, July 2022). More than 8,900 employees across Europe, the Americas, Asia-Pacific, the Middle East and Africa support the Bank's clients, meeting their financial needs throughout the world. Crédit Agricole CIB offers its large corporate and institutional clients a range of products and services in capital markets activities, investment banking, structured finance, commercial banking and international trade. The Bank is a pioneer in the area of climate finance, and is currently a market leader in this segment with a complete offer for all its clients.

For many years Crédit Agricole CIB has been committed to sustainable development. The Bank was the first French bank to sign the Equator Principles in 2003. It has also been a pioneer in Green Bond markets with the arrangement of public transactions from 2012 for a wide array of issuers (supranational banks, corporates, local authorities, banks) and was one of the co-drafter of Green Bond Principles and of the Social Bond Guidance. Relying on the expertise of a dedicated sustainable banking team and on the strong support of all bankers, Crédit Agricole CIB is one of the most active banks in the Green bonds market.
